

Reusable Cross

Do you see lots of crosses in worship today? Decorate the cross below. Then, if you have scissors, cut it out. If you don't, fold along the solid lines, carefully lick the edges, then tear.

Once you have the cross, fold on the dotted lines. You will fold this cross into a box. When you get home, add tape along the edges.

Keep small items in this box, such as coins or jewelry. Remember that Jesus holds everything together!

Christ the King

- Today is the final Sunday of the church year.
- It is called Christ the King Sunday.
- Today we celebrate that Jesus died for us and still reigns today!

King of Kings

Even though Jesus died, he still reigns as king! Add designs to make this an extravagant crown for Jesus.

Today's memory verse is a line from the man on the cross next to Jesus. Read it, then see if you can remember it. During the Sharing of the Peace, tell it to someone you shake hands with. During the sermon, say it in your head. And after worship, tell it to the pastor on your way out.

Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."
Luke 23:42

Are you wondering why we're reading about Jesus' death in November? We are reading it now because it is part of the lectionary. The lectionary is a set of Bible verses that tells churches the story for each Sunday. The lectionary has three years of readings and then starts over again.

When do we usually read the story of Jesus' death?

Agape

Agape is a Greek word that means a love, a kind of love that is so powerful that you can do nothing more and nothing less to change it. This is the kind of love that Jesus had for us, so he died on a cross to prove it. How do you show people you love that you agape them? Write or draw your ideas in the hearts below.
